The Chimes

"Ring out, O bells, ring out and shout
The Was, the Is, the Shall be."

R. R. Bowker

Now as another group of seniors prepare to take their places in the world, we recall the wonderful years we have spent together. Not only have we acquired the knowledge afforded through books, but we have had the even greater experience of living together as good Americans. To preserve the memories of our high school years and to show our deep appreciation to those who have made these things possible—our parents, our teachers, and the citizens of Scituate—we present our 1955 yearbook; may The Chimes echo forever the spirit and praises of Scituate High School.

MEMORIES OF SENIOR YEAR

We've reached the end of our high school days,
Our dear old Golden Rule days.
Our boys and girls, now women and men,
Are wiser than they've ever been.

His majesty, Peter, his subjects were we,
Bob carried our money bags; Ted was V. P.
Carol took minutes, and handled the books;
She was a gal with brains plus looks.

Miss Gile gave advice, Mr. Atkinson too,
They are two swell people, through and through.
What would we have done at class meetings and such
If they'd not kept us happy and helped us so much?

Clubs were formed from cooking to sports,
To cultivate talents, to teach things of all sorts.
The Nurse's Club was one of these;
With Gail and Phyllis around, please don't sneeze!

The Library Club the intellects chose;
Bob made a fine president, everyone knows.
Jane, Billy, and Joyce the shelves they dusted,
While Phyllis and Carolyn the books they adjusted.

The boys and girls who thought they could sing
The doorbell of the Glee Club did ring.
The Senior boys the songs did croon,
While the Senior girls carried the tune.

Did you smell smoke during the year?
'Twas only the boys trying to cook, I fear.
The Chefs' Club, open to male seniors at will,
Was Carl, Allen, Arnold, Jack, Dick, and Bill.

The Photographers' Club, camera lovers' paradise,
Took and developed pictures . . . real nice!
Carolyn, Marcia, Joyce, Frances, and Jane,
Mary, June, Clem, and Joe all learned the same.

Our Senior boys were the football team.
Boy, you should see them give off steam!
Among the stars our own Pete Stewart
Was made Captain of All-Stars, we knew he would do it!

Bill Murray managed the team this season;
If they had lots of spirit, he was the reason.
Bob, Roger, Carl, Ron, Jack and Ted
Kept the Sailors' score way up ahead.

Football was always Larry's pride;
He was right there fighting for our side.
He was captain, too, you know;
He's the chief reason we conquered the foe.

The field hockey team was Gail and Carolyn's delight;
As co-captains and good sports, these gals were all right.

To add to that illustrious crew,
Phyllis was manager, an efficient one too.

Jack, Pete and Bob backed the basketball team;
With Joe as manager, they were on the beam.
The girls' B-B Team starred Carolyn, Mary and Jane,
With Billy as manager, co-champs they became.

Anyone for wrestling? That was the question!
Clem, Allen, Hugh, Arnold, who did you mention?
Oh, yes, Carl was manager, that's for sure;
His job was matches to procure.

"Go, go everybody," was the cheerleaders' cry
While rooting the teams on to victory or die.
Lilla, the captain—Joyce, Marcia, and June
Always sang Boola Boola way off the tune.

The Student Council rose to fame,
As Ron the title of President did claim.
Carolyn took the notes you see,
With Paul and Don, Pat and T. T.

Pro Merito a brilliant group claimed,
Especially when Paul, Imperator was named,
With Ronald as Ductor; Pat, Praefectus Aerarii;
Gail as Scriba or in English, Secretary.

Key Club president was our Don; Dick the secretary.
Letitia on the Chimes staff was very necessary.
She was editor-in-chief; Joyce took the business end.
In orchestra, Dick and Ron a musical note did lend.

Paul Berg won the Bausch-Lomb Award they say;
Gail and Ronnie won a prize for the U.N. essay.
Letitia was the Good Citizen of the D. A. R.
Ted, as representative, at the State House did star.

We'll never forget our Senior Class Play,
In "Dear Ruth" Joyce the lead lines did say.
Joe, Lilla, Dick, Allen, Nancy, T. T. and Dave,
With Pat and Jack support they gave.

Liz was our high strutting head majorette,
With Gail K. and Jane right behind her, you bet.
If your name is left out in sports in this writing,
The spring teams weren't formed at the time of this printing!

The graduation ceremony ends our years.
As we say farewell, we shed many tears.
With thanks to all as we say goodbye,
We leave you now, Dear Scituate High.

As the athletic season got underway, we all took pride in the representation of our class on the field hockey, football, track, baseball, and cheering squads.

In November the Juniors assumed full responsibility for the Situation, with Beryl Sylvester as editor and Mr. Biggar as adviser. The class was also well represented in band, orchestra, and glee club.

FRESHMAN CLASS

Early in the year we held our first class meeting and elected Paul Johnson president; Charlotte White, vice president; Veronica Leone, secretary; Ronald Rencurrel, treasurer; and Mrs. Baker and Mr. Johnson, advisers. Nancy Oliver and Ronald Rencurrel were chosen as our Student Council members.

The Blue Devils football team was made up largely of freshman boys; and Elmer Hartnett, Paul Johnson, Ronnie Rencurrel, and Paul Roy played on the varsity team. Many freshman girls were on the field hockey squad. Over a third of the girls' basketball squad were freshmen, and many freshman boys played on the JV basketball team as well as on the varsity.

We are certainly proud of our honor roll students. George Rodgers received high honors; and Nancy Ashley, Emilie Bubin, Jean Curran, Ann Fitzgerald, Richard Ladd, Veronica Leone, James McInnis, Anne Mulligan, Nancy Oliver, Ronald Rencurrel, Lee Reublinger, Jayne Rogal, Wendell Sides, Bruce Simmon, Jonathan Story, Barbara Tilden, Deborah Tilden, and Charlotte White, honors in the first two marking periods. Many others received honorable mention.

The Freshmen have enthusiastically joined clubs and helped out in the library and in the office. The band, the orchestra, and the glee club included many members of our class.

This, we all agree, has been a very successful year.

LIBRARY STAFF

In September of 1954, the John J. Heffernan Memorial Library was opened for the first time. It is one of the most modern school libraries to be found on the South Shore, a fitting tribute to the memory of Mr. Heffernan.

Under the supervision of Miss Eleanor Gile, twenty-one student librarians were chosen and organized as the Librarians' Club, with Robert Howard, president; Nancy Oliver, secretary; and Charlotte White, treasurer.

Meetings were held every Monday afternoon during the activity period. Various projects were planned and carried out, one of which was historical research on the town of Scituate. A study was made of its early industries, famous landmarks, and outstanding local personalities.

The members of the Librarians' Club were invited to the Quincy High School for a Hallowe'en party. Scituate High, in turn, played host to several South Shore library groups at a Christmas party.

BAND

Under the direction of Mr. Norman Dickinson, the Scituate High School Band enjoyed a very successful year. Several new musicians joined the group, and all members were equipped with attractive new uniforms.

The first appearance of the band was made at the outdoor rally which opened the sports season. During the rest of the football season they played at all the rallies and all but one game.

They also played for several assemblies, performed at the High School Open House, participated in the South Shore Christmas Festival, and joined the orchestra and glee club for the final concert on May 5. On May 14 they went to Mansfield for the Southeastern Massachusetts Band Festival.

Roger Kirwood and Beverly Burt were chosen to play in the All-State Band. Those playing in the concert presented by the Southeastern Massachusetts School Bandmasters' Association at Hingham included Connie Bailey, Beverly Burt, Beth Gunn, Jean Gunn, Roger Kirwood, and Ronald Kirwood.

This year the Scituate High School Orchestra welcomed several new members. They made their first appearance at the Christmas assembly. They also played at the Grange and at the dedication of the Jenkins School. They participated, as usual, in the annual spring concert. Beth Gunn, clarinet, and Constance Bailey, trombone, played in the All-State Orchestra in February. The final appearance of the orchestra was at the Baccalaureate service and the graduation exercises.

A combined girls' and boys' glee club was formed in 1954 under the direction of Mr. Robert Gartside, supervisor of vocal music. In November Mr. Gartside resigned, because of his teaching schedule at Harvard, and was replaced by Mr. John Hornor, a student at the New England Conservatory of Music. Meetings of the glee club were held during activity periods on Tuesday and Thursday of each week.

In December the Glee Club sang at the Christmas assembly and at the Open House for parents. All members participated in the Southeastern Massachusetts Music Festival in March, with several appearing as soloists. Members of the Scituate High Glee Club represented the school at the scholarship contests sponsored by the Massachusetts Federation of Woman's Clubs and by the Village Singers of Hanover.

FOOTBALL

Down came the goal posts as the end of the '54 season drew to a close. The record of this year's team, captained by Larry Basler, was six wins and two losses. The upset win over Weston was the brightest spot of the campaign. After losing the Rockland game by one point, we overcame our weakness in kicking for extra points and won the Weston contest by the same margin. Scituate scored 158 points to our opponents' 93.

This year the Scituate boys' basketball team finished in fifth place in the South Shore League, with a 7 and 7 record for the season. The best game of the regular season was with Hanover, when Scituate won 69 to 68. The team hit their offensive high against Duxbury with a victory of 107 to 88. Scituate lost their only game in the South Shore Tourney to a big Avon team, 77 to 58.

The J. V. team had a good season, winning 3 and losing 4. Also the Freshman team, losing only one game during the season, proved that there will be good prospects for the future of basketball.

Wrestling was introduced this year in Scituate High School as a new sport. Mr. Bordne, who has been wrestling and refereeing for about ten years, was the coach. The team, which was organized from about thirty candidates, consisted of fourteen members. To be eligible to wrestle in the duo-meets, a boy first won from boys in his own weight class.

Matches were scheduled with Milton Academy, Brown and Nichols, Noble-Greenough, and Worcester Academy as well as with Wellesley, Reading, and Needham. The state meet at Needham was the culmination of the season.
